Ben Hilbun, 1953-1960

Bio/History Note

Benjamin Franklin Hilbun was born November 14, 1890. He grew up in Centreville, Mississippi and attended high school in Jones County. In 1920, he enrolled at Mississippi A. & M. College after serving in World War I in Europe. After graduating in 1923, Hilbun worked with the Starkville Chamber of Commerce helping with the establishment of the Borden Condensery in town. In 1927, he married Josie Rosamond and had one son, Benjamin Jr.

Hilbun joined the A. & M. staff in 1925 as the Director of Public Relations, and was also employed as an instructor, registrar, and administrative assistant to President Fred T. Mitchell until succeeding him as president. Prior to his inauguration in July 1954, he received a Doctor of Laws degree from Mississippi College in May 1954. Hilbun left the presidency in 1960 at the age of 70 and passed away December 13, 1963.
