David Carlisle Hull, 1920-1925

Bio/History Note

David Carlisle Hull was born in Attala County, Mississippi, on November 4, 1869, the son of a local minister. After graduating from Mississippi A. & M. College in 1895, he began his career teaching in the Mississippi public schools, also serving as a principal, and later joining the Mississippi A. & M. faculty in 1902. In 1910, Hull was selected as the president of Millsaps College in Jackson, Mississippi and served until 1912, when he accepted the position of superintendent of the Meridian city schools. Hull held this position until 1920, when he was selected as the first Mississippi A. & M. alumnus to serve as the college's president. In 1925, Hull left A. & M. and accepted the position of president of Wesleyan College in Winchester, Kentucky. He died in April 1928.
