Hugh Critz, 1930-1934

Bio/History Notes

Hugh Critz was the eighth president of Mississippi State University. A native of Starkville, Mississippi, Critz graduated from Mississippi A. & M. College in 1896. He taught in Alabama for several years before being elected superintendent of the Starkville High School in 1903. In 1916, Critz moved to Bolton, Tennessee where he helped to organize the Bolton Agricultural High School, then serving as president of the Russellville A. & M. College in 1920. Three years later, he became the director of the Mississippi State College Service Bureau, and was elected as public relations director of the Mississippi Power and Light Company in 1925. He accepted the presidency at Mississippi State in 1930, later serving as Dean of the Agricultural School, and then as president of the A. & M. College in Monticello, Arkansas. Critz died at his home in Clarksdale in February 1947.

Scope and Content Note

This collection consists of correspondence and subject files that cover the presidency of Hugh Critz, eighth president of Mississippi State University. The files are arranged into seven series: 1930, 1931, 1932, 1933, 1934, 1947-1950, and Annual Reports. Files are arranged alphabetically within each series, with general correspondence first, then specific correspondence, and finally subject files. Topics include: Annual reports, Board of Trustees, Employee files, Committee reports, Student files, and Departmental reports.
